

YOUR VOICE MATTERS

COMMUNITY INPUT SESSION IN WORCESTER

Massachusetts Tribal and Indigenous Environmental Justice Strategy

Tribal members, Native people, Indigenous community members, elders, youth, and Native-serving organizations connected to Massachusetts are invited to attend a community input session to review the Massachusetts Tribal and Indigenous Environmental Justice Strategy Engagement Plan.

Come learn about the work that a working group of tribal leaders and Indigenous community representatives has put together to guide the State in building respectful, lasting partnerships with Native communities in Massachusetts.

SESSION DETAILS

Date	Tuesday, June 2, 2026
Time	6:00-8:00 PM
Location	Worcester State University Eager Auditorium, Room S416 486 Chandler St, Worcester, MA 01602
Virtual / Zoom registration	https://kauffmaninc.zoom.us/meeting/register/i9GLZPblRvyfwz4gxmEYbQ

WHY ATTEND

Your voice will help make sure the strategy is shaped by Indigenous voices and lived experience. Please join us to listen, share feedback, and help guide the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in taking the next steps toward more respectful, accountable, and community-driven partnerships with Native communities.

SCAN TO ATTEND

IN-PERSON ATTENDANCE IS ENCOURAGED. A VIRTUAL OPTION IS AVAILABLE THROUGH ZOOM REGISTRATION.